2. Christmas Drawing Game — 20 things to draw in four levels, all on one host sheet — nothing to cut out.

3. Christmas Bingo — 12 different cards plus the calling list. Everyone plays their own card.

What's inside — and what you actually need to print

	GAME	BEST FOR	PRINT
1	Christmas Trivia 20 questions for two teams, with the answers and a tie-breaker on the host sheet.	Two teams	pages 3-4
2	Christmas Drawing Game 20 things to draw in four levels, all on one host sheet — nothing to cut out.	Two teams + a host	page 5
3	Christmas Bingo 12 different cards plus the calling list. Everyone plays their own card.	Up to 12 players	pages 6-12

GOOD TO KNOW

> Before you print: choose Actual size (or 100%) rather than "Fit to page". That keeps everything square and the tick boxes big enough to mark.

> How the evening runs: Trivia while the food is coming (about 15 minutes), the Drawing Game after dinner (about 20), Bingo by the tree (about 15). Each game names its own winner.

> What to print: the host pages once, the answer sheet once per team, and one bingo card per player. Page 3 alone is a complete 20-question game.

> Nothing else needed. Pens, some paper for the artist and a phone timer. No cutting, no folding, no pieces to lose.

Christmas Trivia — host sheet, answers included

Two teams. Read each question aloud; each team writes its answer on its answer sheet. Then swap sheets, mark them and add up — most correct wins.

Christmas Drawing Game — host sheet, keep it out of sight

Two teams take turns. The host shows the artist one line at a time, starting at Easy, without anyone else seeing. Sixty seconds per turn: the artist draws with no letters, no numbers and no talking, every correct guess scores a point and the host shows the next line, until the time runs out. When all 20 are ticked off, the team with more points wins — if it is a tie, the team that guessed more Expert lines wins.

Bingo calling list — host page

Everyone plays their own card. Read these out in any order, ticking each as you go. The first player with five in a row — across, down or corner to corner — shouts Bingo! and wins. If two players shout on the same word, they both win.
